

1. To perform this laboratory work you need to download a file “SQLQuery_Universities.sql”. The file contains information about students of Russian Federation, who passed exams in 2000 in different universities of the country. Your task consists in making a full analysis of the database with special attention to the exam results of students using various SQL tools (indexes, transactions, views).